Posh Designs for Less

Ever struggle with the layout of a room no matter how many ideas you have collected in your style book, or a vision you have but something is not adding up? Designer Monique Breaux, who has been on HGTV's Designer Challenge in between designing homes, resorts, yachts and private jets, says she has the answer.

It's a one stop shop website where you pick and click the bedroom, or living room of your choice! It is all pre designed for you and comes to your front door with furniture she has custom designed to the artwork and paint color suggestions. Here Monique talks about how proportion, size and layout are common mistakes we make no matter how well we know great design. And, she offers tips on how to look at your bedroom, your living room and your home and enjoy luxury for less!
